G C G D

1. To - day there is a Par - ty from a girl in the neigh - bour - hood.
2. It would be ea - sy to call you, but there - for I'm too shy.

G C G D/Fis G C9

I know I ha - ve to be there, 'cause she looks pret - ty good.
We've on - ly se - en each o - ther, when you were pas - sing by.

G C G D

1. I have no in - vi ta - tion, but I rea - ly need one.
2. Sudden - ly the pho - ne is rin - ging, on the other side there are you
3. Now we're hap - py to - ge - ther, just me and you.

G C G D/Fis G C9

How can I get the per - mis - sion, the per - mis - sion to come,
You say: Hel - lo do you know me? I say: Yes, I do and I were sing - ing
We're kis - sing through the who - le night, oh yes we do

G C G D G C G D

Uhh la la la, hey pret - ty co - unts girl. Uh la la la, I wan - na be your earl.

G C G D G C G D

Uhh la la la, I will do what I can. Uhh la la la,

1. to be - co - me your man. 2. - 3. to be - co - me your man. fine
now I am your man.

Now I'm here and you are there, what shall I do?

I can see your love - ly face, so I kiss you. al fine
